

$99,000 More for Millwood Dam Project

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee approved today $69,244,000 for construction and planning of water projects in Arkansas.

Of the total, $66.4 million is for construction, $2,684,000 is for planning and $100,000 is for surveys. The biggest Arkansas slice — goes for construction of bank and stabilization and channel rectification on the Arkansas River and tributaries.

But Beaver Reservoir will get $14 million for construction and the Dardanelle Lock and Dam on the Arkansas River will get $16 million.

Other construction projects in the bill:

Bull Shoals Reservoir, addition of units No. 7 and 8, $2 million; DeGray Reservoir $1.55 million; Red River work at Garland City $150,000; Greers Ferry Reservoir $4.9 million; Millwood Reservoir $99,000; Ouachita and Black Rivers, $235,000; Ozark Lock and Dam, $300,000.

Surveys: Fourche La Pave River $30,000; Water Valley Reservoir $30,000; White River Basin $100,000.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee today approved legislation to provide $4,615,907,000 for public works throughout the country.

The total, including funds for a start on 49 new construction projects, is $674,951,920 above public works appropriations for the year that ended June 30, but $129,424,100 under President Kennedy's budget recommendations.

The committee recommended all locations to 459 projects and activities of the Corps of Engineers and the Bureau of Reclamation. The allocations for the current year total $1,072,514,000 for works which, when completed, will represent a federal investment of about $17 billion.

The public works program under the Atomic Energy Commission accounted for $2,860,974,000, slightly under the budget estimate.

The committee said that an unexpected $1.9 million carryover of unobligated funds from the previous year had served as a partial offset to some of the increases approved.

Questioning Humphrey Is Suggested

WASHINGTON (AP) — A government auditor told Senate stockpile investigators today they should question George M. Humphrey, former secretary of the Treasury, and his son, Gilbert Humphrey, about burning of records covering multimillion-dollar profits on stockpiled nickel.

Walter M. Henson, a supervisor for the General Accounting Office who has spent months auditing the records and income taxes of the M. A. Hanna Corp., said the records were destroyed in February and March of this year.

That was shortly after President Kennedy urged the current special Senate inquiry led by Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo.

Henson testified that two companies, set up by the Hanna interests formerly headed by George Humphrey, had netted profits of more than $39 million on investments of about $4.5 million in supplying nickel under a series of contracts signed Jan. 16, 1953, just before Humphrey took office as secretary of the Treasury under former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

President Has Rejected Tax Cut This Year

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy, rejecting an immediate tax cut as an economic weapon that might boomerang, has set his sights on multibillion-dollar reductions and tax reform for 1963.

But he told a nationwide television-radio audience Monday night that if the unexpected happens—that if the nation slides toward recession later this year—he will call Congress into special session to lighten the "far too heavy" tax burden.

He described the present tax system as "a drag on economic recovery and economic growth, biting heavily into the purchasing power of every taxpayer and every consumer."

A number of Democrats in Congress applauded his speech. A number of Republicans accused him of playing election-year politics. They emphasized a favorite GOP theme that slashes in government spending should accompany tax reductions.

This theme was also stressed by Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., chairman of the Senate Finance Committee. He said that when Kennedy submits his tax measure, and his budget, next year "he will have an opportunity to indicate whether he plans to reduce expenditures or pay for a tax cut with borrowed money."

Kennedy was serious of mien and unsmiling as, with the aid of specially prepared charts, he developed a two-fold thesis:

That the nation has bounced back a long way from the recession he said held sway when his term began in January, 1961.

That it still has a considerable distance to go to attain full employment and booming production. Compared to the economic growth of Western Europe and Japan, he said, "We have been more or less standing still for five years."

But this is the wrong time to call for an immediate tax cut, he said.

Rejecting demands from the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, the AFL-CIO and others for such action, he said: "Under the right circumstances, that is a sound and effective weapon, but like many weapons, it should be fired only at a period of maximum advantage."

"Timing is of the essence, and in the absence of a clear and present danger to the American economy today, I believe the American people are willing to bear the burdens of freedom and progress, to face the facts of fiscal responsibility and to share my view that proposing an emergency tax cut tonight, a cut which could not now be either justified or enacted,

Feat Could Spell Trouble for the U. S.

By ELTON C. FAY
WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet precision in launching satellites—plunking a pair of manned spacecraft into matching orbits—could spell trouble for the U.S. "spy in the sky" systems.

This warning and surveillance satellite systems are still in the development stage.

A number of vehicles have been put into orbit during the past months, some of them presumably equipped with instruments for reporting data back to U.S. receiving stations. The systems are still a year or more away from being completely operational and useful.

Over the weekend, the Soviet Union showed that she has achieved a long step leading eventually toward ability to intercept satellites—either for purposes of peaceful space exploration or for inspection and destruction.

The Soviet scientists succeeded, on the basis of their own reports and on data from other sources, in putting Vostok IV on the same plane and virtually within sight of Vostok III.

To do this, fantastic accuracy, in timing, rocket-engine burning control and computation had to be attained.

Scientists figure the Soviet launchers had an interval of less than 14 seconds to fire Vostok IV, during the 18th orbit of the first satellite, in order to put them both into the same track and in proximity.

There were reports in Washington that the precision was even better than announced initially by the Soviet Union, being virtually a perfect matching of plane, heights and time.

What this could mean to U.S. military officials is that the Soviets may be able to convert this demonstration into the practical application for knocking down American spy-in-the-sky satellites.

Red Astronauts Finish Another Day in Space

By PRESTON GROVER

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union's two newest astronauts completed another day of flying in the cosmos today with no definite indication when they will be brought down.

Maj. Andrian (Falcon) Nikolayev completed his third day in orbit at 11:30 a. m. 3:30 a. m. EST and Lt. Col. Pavel (Golden Eagle) Popovich finished his second day aloft at 11:02 a. m.

Tass, the Soviet news agency, announced that by noon Nikolayev had completed his 49th orbit of the earth and had traveled about 1.4 million miles.

Popovich, flying in almost the same orbit, had completed 33 circuits of the earth for a total of about 980,000 miles.

"The flight continues," said the announcement in what sounded like an indication that the two space men would not land today.

The Soviet government continued to maintain absolute secrecy about the future schedule of the flight.

Earlier a Soviet informant had said something interesting would happen in the afternoon, when both astronauts would be in a position to descend. Later some of the usually reliable Soviet scientific sources came out with opposing predictions.

"They will be down today," said one.

"They are going to finish out a week," said another.

By PRESTON GROVER

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union's two newest astronauts completed another day of circling the earth today and appeared to be still in orbit in midafternoon, the time considered best for a landing attempt.

Moscow's central television station broadcast at 4:10 p. m. what it claimed was a direct transmission from Vostok III, piloted by Maj. Andrian (Falcon) Nikolayev. Nikolayev could be seen raising

Burglars Hit Texarkana Store

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Burglars cracked the safe at the J.C. Penney Co., here over the weekend and took an undetermined amount of money.

Police said the burglars broke in through a rear door and used a blowtorch to cut a hole in the safe.

They said water was poured into the safe, apparently to prevent it from stopping.

Store manager Bill Jones discovered the burglary Sunday night. He said he didn't know how much money was taken.

How to Get SS Checks, No Delay

Otis A. Blackwood, District Manager, Texarkana Social Security Office, gave a tip today on how people who plan to retire can get their first social security checks without any delays.

"Inquire before you retire is a good rule to remember," he said. "Whether you've decided to retire or not, you should visit the social security office three months before you reach retirement age."

"We won't tell you whether you should retire," he explained, "but we will tell you when to apply for social security."

By checking with the social security office three months before you retire, you can help speed your first check, he said. The social security representative will help you in claiming benefits for yourself and your family.

He'll help you get whatever proofs are needed to complete your application. For example, Blackwood said, you'll probably need to prove your age. The office can tell you whether any of the documents you have will do.

Blackwood added that you should check with social security even if you're still working. You don't have to quit work entirely to get social security benefits. Many people have this wrong impression, he said, and they are losing social security payments.

Filibuster Broken By Senate Vote to Limit Debate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate chiseled a page in history today by voting a debate limitation to break the back of a filibuster against the administration's communications satellite bill.

The vote was 63 for cloture and 27 against.

Thus, for the first time in more than 35 years, the required two-thirds majority of those participating approved a bipartisan leadership motion to invoke the 48-year-old cloture rule. Under it each senator will be limited to a total of one hour's further talk.

The action forecast Senate passage—possibly late this week—of the measure to set up privately owned but government regulated corporation to launch and operate satellites in a global communications system. The house passed the bill May 3 by a 354-9 vote.

Liberal Democrats, fighting for government ownership, charged in time-consuming talk that the private corporation — to be half-owned by communications firms and half by purchasers of its stock—would be dominated by AT&T. Backers of the bill disputed that.

And President Kennedy, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and other administration leaders had all called for passage of the bill in its present form.

Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois joined Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana in sponsoring the cloture motion.

Dirksen forecast passage of the bill this week, with no major amendments. He said he was informed only about 20 senators wanted to discuss it as much as one hour each.

Piled up on the Senate clerk's desk were about 185 amendments. But many of them were duplicates and Dirksen said he thought only about 25 actually might be presented.

As the vote was taken, the Senate's public galleries were packed with spectators drawn by the drama of the decision.

Just before the roll call, Mansfield, in an emotional speech, appealed to colleagues to stand behind him and be counted on whether the Senate procedures can "be blocked by a small group."

The 63 senators who voted for cloture numbered 29 Democrats and 34 Republicans. The only Southern Democrats casting their votes for it were Sens. Spessard Holland and George Smathers of Florida.

Light Turnout in Voting Is Indicated

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A light turnout of voters was expected in today's runoff primary with at least five counties not holding any elections.

D. D. Glover, chief secretary of state, has predicted fewer than 200,000 voters will go to the polls, compared to the July 31 primary turnout of over 405,000 in the governor's race.

Democratic committees in Mississippi, Franklin and Lonoke counties announced Monday they were joining Lincoln and Crittenden counties in deciding against a second primary.

The only statewide runoff is secretary of state, with M. Willis of Van Buren a reluctant opponent to Kelly Bryant of Hope.

Willis trailed Bryant by 40,000 plus votes in the July 31 primary and later announced he was withdrawing from the runoff election because of limited finances.

But state Democratic Party officials ruled that Willis' name must appear on the ballot, whether he wants it there or not since he ran second to Bryant.

The muddled secretary of state situation is expected to bring legislation next year to prevent a repeat.

Rep. Jim Brandon of Pulaski County, who won renomination July 31, said Monday the Legislative Council is progressing in its study of state election laws and a bill is being drawn up for review by the council.

The attorney general's office has taken a hands-off attitude toward the situation, branding it a problem of the Democratic Party.

Among the scattered races to be decided today were five district contests.

Joe Woodward is opposing Marshall Shackelford Jr. in the 13th district for prosecuting attorney. Also in the 13th district, Joe L. Tompleton opposed Joe B. Hurley for the senate.

In other senatorial races: L. L. Bryan is running against Carl E. Sorrels in the 10th district; Nathan G. Coulier opposed the incumbent Roy L. Riales Sr. in the 6th district and Dub Wells is opposed to James W. Raney in the 11th.

Things World Could Well Do Without

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Instead of counting sheep the next time you have insomnia, why not instead mentally make a list of things you feel the world would be better off without?

Here's one man's sample checklist of things he'd be glad to do without:

Cathedral living rooms. Martinis made with vodka. Salads in which the garlic outweighs the lettuce.

All television commercials showing symbolic diagrams of how headache remedies and upset-tummy cures work in the human body.

Shaggy dog stories. Career women who try to act "just like one of the boys."

Wives who insist on telling their husband's faults.

Husbands who insist on telling you their wife's faults.

Plastic tubes you have to squeeze with both hands to get a dribble of mustard or catsup from.

Drip-dry suits that don't require ironing or press—that is, unless you object to looking as wrinkled as a laundry sack.

Automatic elevators that have so many buttons to push only a man with jet pilot training can get off at the proper floor.

People who tell you, "It's getting a little thin on top, isn't it?"

Any man over 40 who is lean, tanned and muscular—and who wants to let you in on the secret of how you can be that way too.

Roller derbies, college panty raids, cocktail canapes, duck-tailed haircuts, and youths who race around small quiet lakes in noisy motor boats.

All race horses that come in second.

Anybody who knocks the New York Mets baseball team—just because they are still a few games out of first place.

Fellows who brag about how much they've dropped in the stock market—and then wait for you to pick up the luncheon check.

Waiters who seek a bigger tip by rushing up and putting an extra dab of butter on your plate—just as you're finishing your coffee at the end of a meal.

Men who always show you pictures of their family before trying to borrow money.

People who send you funny greeting cards because they are too lazy to write you a letter.

Payroll checks with deductions that match your take-home pay.

American Flag pledge was led by Carroll Rowe.

Nancy Stevenson gave a very interesting demonstration. There were 17 members and 5 visitors present, including Wade Benefield, assistant County Agent.

Miss Barbara Barrow to Wed. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Barrow of Hope announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Barbara Jean, to James Harold Ingram, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ingram of Prescott.

The wedding will be an event of September 9 in the home of the bride. No cards will be sent.

Mrs. Clem Grigg, Arcadia, La., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Guy Grigg and Jane.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Willis and Don and Miss Kay Burke, all of Houston, Tex., spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burke and attended the Burke family reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlis Brooks and Jane spent Sunday in Bearden with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cowling and Susan.

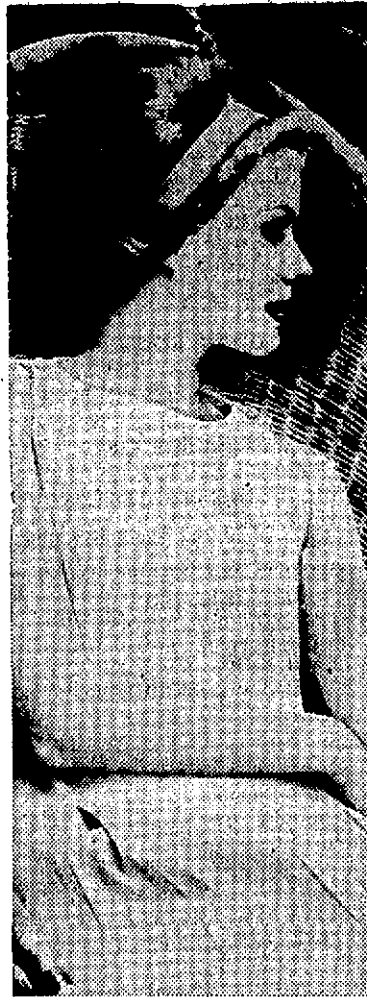

Mr. and Mrs. Troy Smith and Virginia Ruth, Bowling, Calif., have been recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Hughes.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Bebrala of Chicago, Ill., were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Brown. All went to Hot Springs one day to visit Gen. and Mrs. Theo T. King on Lake Hamilton.

During last week Mr. and Mrs. Paul Raley had as their guests the Rev. and Mrs. W. K. Patterson and children, Shawnee, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. David Pack, Les and Paul of Pine Bluff.

Mrs. Maude Gillespie left last week by plane for San Diego, Calif. She will attend a National Nursing Home meeting in Seattle, Wash., go to the World's Fair, and spend 10 days in Hawaii before coming home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McDowell and grandson, Randy McDowell, Ft. Worth, Tex., and Lawrence McDowell and three children, Arlington, Tex., were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McDowell and Mr. and Mrs. Cannon May.

During the summer months, we must take precautions against the drying effects of too much sun on hair and skin. This girl (left) uses a conditioner daily to keep her hair soft and manageable. She has also used a temporary color rinse, that washes out easily, to blend in sun streaks. Lipstick, too, plays an important role in keeping lips soft and moist. To highlight a golden tan, a new coral peach shade, with matching nail polish (center) is a perfect choice. To counteract dryness from sun and salt water, a fragrant bath oil in your daily tub (right) will leave skin smooth and delightful.

DOROTHY DIX

She Haunts Him Still

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: Do you believe in thought transference? I didn't until—well, let me tell the story, then decide for yourself and advise me accordingly.

My fiancé once loved a selfish, possessive and unreasonable but beautiful woman. He was her slave and—with justification, or so people would say, because she was a famous actress and to be her lover a privilege. In return, he remained the one man in her life.

Her shows were smash hits. Every night he had a front row aisle seat—with her compliments. After the performance all but he were barred from her dressing room. They dined together at one a.m. and, from then till morning, she was his or, to be realistic, he hers. These hours didn't jibe with those of his job—staff doctor in a big hospital.

This was the cause of their final break. She called upon him with a pistol in her purse, finally handed it to him and left in tears but with a parting threat—to haunt him the rest of her life. "No matter where you go, or who you are with, I shall be there too."

I met him after (I am a nurse) and clicked from the start. The night of our first date, he was driving along a country road after taking me home when he suddenly became aware of her on the seat beside him, cuddling close. He cried out. She opened the car door and slithered to the ground. As he jammed on the brakes, in an effort to save her, the car skidded into a telephone pole.

When he came to I was kneeling by his bed in the hospital. After hearing his story I checked the actress' whereabouts. She was starring in a London production—3,000 miles away. This is but one of several similar episodes which have since occurred—always involving her. My fiancé insists that I am the only woman he truly ever loved. Yet, she must be in his thoughts else he wouldn't dream up these weird stories or—are they real? Could she literally have bewitched him?—Help Me To Help Him Forgive.

Dear Helen: Your fiancé's subconscious mind is still under the domination of this other woman. To that extent she has put the hex on him. Since he is a physician and you a nurse, this should be easy enough to recognize and, once having diagnosed the ill, a cure effected. People can hoot at thought transference, but it does happen, as J. B. Rhines, of Duke University, often demonstrates. Your fiancé must uproot the image of that woman from his mind. Be patient. Until he develops the strength of will to cast her out of his consciousness.

Encourage him to see her for what she is—a figment of his imagination. And, if you love him enough, marry now. He needs you!

Dear Helen: My life is a mess: married twice; divorced once; mother of five children—the eldest nine, youngest two—I respect my first husband but am physically crazy about the second, an Air Force pilot. The first wants me to divorce again and remarry him for our children's sake. Yet—I can't give up my aviator!—Worried Wife.

Dear Worried: You can't love a man you don't respect. If you let yourself be led down the primrose path of sex, you're a lost soul. Your first duty should be to those five youngsters. Is their father or stepfather better qualified to help you give them the love, security and discipline they need? This should be the deciding factor in your life. It isn't too late to change, provided right, and not self, motivates you. Grow up!

Dear Helen: I would appreciate suggestions for the name of a special room in our new home. It will be a combination office (typing, paying bills etc.), sewing, ironing, mending and hobby (metalcraft, painting and quilting) room. It will also contain a big cleaning closet. Suggestions from friends, include, "Activities Room," "Hobby, Work or Play" Room. While these describe the room, they are not precisely what I seek. Can your readers supply me with a better name?—R.D., Hemet, Calif.

Dear Readers: Any suggestions? If so, send them care of this column.

Argument Results in a Shooting

JUNCTION CITY, Ark. (AP)—Harvey Pennington 42 a pulpwood contractor, and Junction City Mayor Floyd Slaughter exchanged gunfire in the middle of U. S. Highway 17 today, Union County Sheriff O. E. Bishop said.

Pennington was hit by a .38 caliber pistol shot in the left shoulder and the thumb of his right hand, Bishop said. Slaughter was not harmed.

Bishop said the shooting occurred during an argument. Bishop said Pennington was taken to a clinic in Bernice, La., treated and released.

There were no arrests made, the sheriff said.

Bishop said both men will have to post appearance bond and the case will be bound over to the Union County Grand Jury in the September term.

Offered No Bribe, Says Sen. Long

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., said today he was not offered any bribe by the American Telephone & Telegraph Co. to support the administration's communications satellite bill.

Long, one of a small group flustering against the bill, made the statement to a reporter after Sen. Ralph W. Yarborough, D-Tex., told the Senate it was its duty to lay the bill aside until "this charge of bribery has been investigated."

Previously Sens. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., and Paul H. Douglas, D-Ill., had interpreted a series of questions Long directed last week at Sen. Frank E. Moss, D-Utah, another opponent of the bill, as indicating "scandalous" efforts had been made to get senators to support the bill.

Long was not in the Senate when Kefauver, Douglas and Yarborough made these interpretations of his questions.

But Long told a reporter who reached him by telephone that he did not feel he had been offered a bribe.

"I was not offered a bribe by the company," Long said. "I do not want to charge the company with that."

Asked whether he had had communications of any kind with AT&T representatives, Long indicated that he had. But he said he did not want to discuss them at this time.

Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, the Democratic leader, told Kefauver and the others seeking to raise the issue that any senators who had information on such matters could get an investigation.

Youths Plead Innocent at Ashdown

ASHDOWN, Ark. (AP)—Four youths arrested Aug. 4 here in connection with the shooting of Ashdown marshal Elmer Ross, 45, pleaded innocent before Judge Robert Steele of Nashville today.

Their trial was set Sept. 10. The four youths, James Lee Bolin, 19, Nathan Ray Bolin, 17, Frank Edward Wynn, 17, and Gerald Edward Sonders, 17, were being charged with accessories to assault with intent to kill. The youths are all from Fort Smith.

A fifth youth involved in the incident, Freddie Bynum, 18, of Fort Smith, shot himself while officers were trying to capture him. Police said he was the one to fire at the marshal. Ross was shot in the mouth and chest.

Sheriff Audrey Thrash said at the time of their arrest the youths told him they had stole a car in Fort Smith. When they ran Ashdown's only stop light, Ross stopped them.

After Ross was shot the youths fled. Bynum killed himself when State Trooper Bob Porter tried to arrest him, Thrash said.

"The youths have not made bond, officers said today, and are being held in the Ashdown jail."

World War II Ended 17 Years Ago

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—It was 17 years ago today that World War II ended sending millions of soldiers home to find civilian jobs—with 200,000 GI's coming to Arkansas.

And they've fared well since returning to Arkansas the Veterans Administration reports.

A composite picture of the average WW II GI returning to Arkansas shows:

He's married, with three children.

Has an income of $6,000 a year. Lives in a $14,500 house, probably financed through a GI home loan.

Henry G. Moore, regional office manager of the VA in Little Rock, says the "veteran has made us a nation of homemakers."

To back this up, Moore points out there are some 33,000 new homes in Arkansas owned by former GIs, with the houses valued at nearly $220 million.

Education-wise, Arkansas GIs have done equally well.

More said the VA's educational program has produced for Arkansas 45,000 professional persons, 42,500 farmers and 31,000 in business, trades plus flight and industrial occupations for over 118,500 of the World War II veterans.

Dr. H. W. Sterling, hospital director in Arkansas for the VA, said veterans hospitals in the state have combined bed capacity of 2,700.

The VA has a regional office in Little Rock, a hospital in Fayetteville and a hospital with divisions in Little Rock and North Little Rock.

A far-sighted Congress is credited by the VA for helping mold the settled character of the average American ex-GI and a lack of unrest which was common among veterans of some nations.

West Expects Protests Over Attacks

By GEORGE BOULTWOOD
BERLIN (AP) - The Western troops expected strong Soviet protests and new threats today following West Berliners' attacks on the Red wall and Russian vehicles during the first anniversary of the barricade.

Rioting crowds hurled paving blocks and curses Monday night at the barricade which was begun a year ago and now divides Berlin with stone, steel, barbed wire and military fortifications.

Reinforced West German police repeatedly drove wildly screaming demonstrators back from the wall, which has become a symbol of West Berlin's isolation and the Communist repression in East Germany.

One crowd, frustrated in its attempts to reach the wall, surrounded three Soviet army vehicles near Checkpoint Charlie in the U.S. sector. The soldiers were returning from guard duty at the Soviet war memorial in West Berlin.

The angry demonstrators hurled stones and beer bottles, smashing the windows of a bus. Youths closed in on two sedans shouting "pig" and "dirty bums." West German police finally freed the Soviet vehicles.

Brig. Gen. Frederick O. Hartel, U.S. troop commander in Berlin, went to Checkpoint Charlie to investigate the attack.

West Berlin Police Commissioner Erich Duensing said about 2,000 West Berliners stoned his men along the wall in the Bernauerstrasse area, three miles north of the trouble near Checkpoint Charlie.

Newsmen at the scene said the stones appeared to be aimed at East German police beyond the wall, but that some struck West police cars blocking the way to the wall. West police finally scattered the rioters with a water cannon.

Earlier in the day East and West police hurled hundreds of tear gas grenades across the border at Wilhelmstrasse after an East German water cannon drenched youthful West Berlin marchers.

West Berlin officials had urged a quiet observance of the day, including three minutes of silence at noon to be broken only by the tolling of the Freedom Bell, a replica of the American Liberty Bell. West Berliners drowned out most of the bell's peals with blaring auto horns.

Both sides of the border were heavily patrolled, by the West to prevent violence that could lead to an East-West shooting scrape and by the East to halt attempts to escape or to destroy parts of the wall.

Henrich Hertz, in 1887, showed that waves emitted by an electric spark produced another spark in a nearby loop of wire and these "Hertzian waves" are the basis of radio.

THE SIMPLE CURE

By MARGUERITE SCHWANDT
After school one Friday afternoon of May, Walter (Pip) Keller sat in the office of the doctors Lemming and Motts.

He, the 24-year-old Pip of the class of '58 of Milwaukee Tech, was slipping and he wanted to know why. It was a pretty mess, just when he was due for a promotion. The director of the Oshkosh vocational school had said, "Walter, if you keep on the ball the way you have been, you can be in charge of this department when Smith goes to Milwaukee in the fall."

The doctor came right to the point. It wasn't long before he knew all about Walter.

"Yes, lately I forget everything," Walter said. "I even forget what I'm doing when I'm showing the boys how to clean a generator or such. I may slip a part or two into my pocket and then later can't find it."

The doctor was sure he had a really disturbed young man to deal with.

"Have you a girl friend?" asked Doctor Motts.

"Oh, sure. But I'm not ever really serious when it comes to a

Asks $600 Million for Public Welfare

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has asked for nearly $600 million in new appropriations, more than half of it to pay for increased costs of the new public welfare law.

In his request to Congress Monday the President asked $30.8 million to finance increased grants to the states for public assistance under the new welfare act.

Guerrillas Stripped

ALGIERS (AP)—Ahmed Ben Bella's ruling Political Bureau today stripped guerrilla troops of their police and judicial powers in a move to bring them into a unified national army.

The six-man Political Bureau is dictating Algerian policy since Premier Ben Youssef Ben Khedda of the provisional regime stepped down to become a mere figurehead.

Forestry Contest

CLARKSVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Fifty-three girls compete here tonight to represent the Northwest District in the state Forest Queen contest. The Central District contest will be held Wednesday night in Little Rock, the Southeast District Thursday night in Monticello, the Northeast District Aug. 21 at Pocahontas and the Southwest District Aug. 23 at DEQueen.

you any money? I've forgotten my billfold.

He took her proffered bills, and sheepishly explained to the pretty girl at the window about leaving his money in his other pants. He continued to pan himself as he drove on.

"What do you think is happening to me? I can't remember from here to Second Street."

"Nothing too serious, I guess."

"Did you ever see a guy like me before?"

"I've been out with a few forgetful ones."

"Where are they now?"

"They got more serious than I was ready to be, so they look further."

"It seems as though I can't remember anything. The doctor hasn't helped me much yet."

"What are you thinking of when you seem to forget everything?"

"Nothing much—well, maybe the dark sweep of hair flowing up from your broad forehead, and how your blue eyes shine."

"That's the nicest thing that you have ever said," said Midge pucker her lips and planted them on his cheek.

The kiss startled him. Other girls gave bigger ones, with less impact.

Walter grabbed Midge again, for a real kiss this time.

"Walter?"

"Midge! I'm in love," said Walter. "I'm going to call Dr. Motts He'll be surprised to learn I'm marrying the cause of my forgetfulness."

"Really?"

"When I was thinking of you, how could I remember anything else!"

Skiing on Narrows Is One Way to Beat Heat

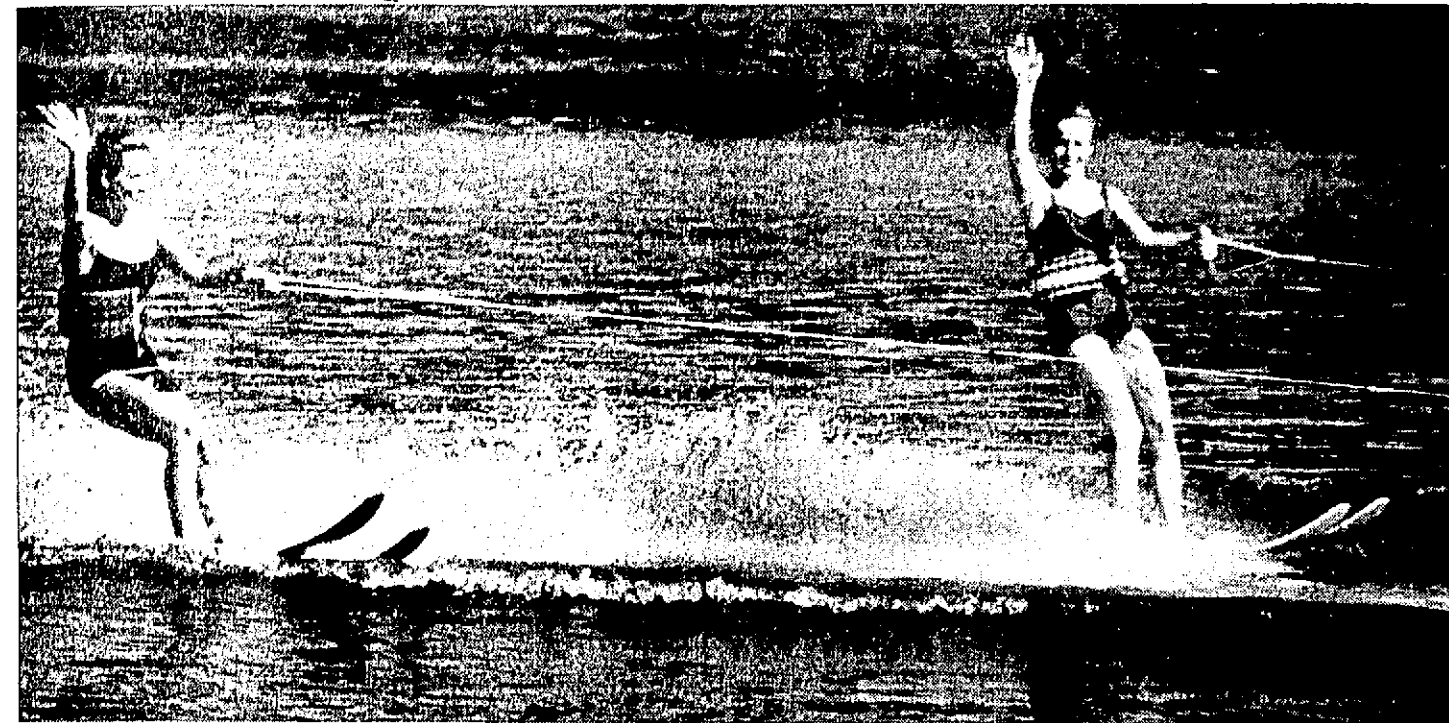

EVERY SUMMER THE STAR'S EDITOR MAKES SOME water-skiing pictures on The Narrows — so last Saturday afternoon he barged in on a Cowhide Cove picnic of the Dale Tonnemaker family, 1010 West Avenue B, Hope.

SUCCESSFUL WATER-SKIING PHOTOGRAPHY IS A science in itself. The editor's method is to get on the roof of his outboard cruiser, while someone else pilots it, and makes telephoto shots of the skiers drawn by a runabout. He had two cameras, using a 3x lens for these black-and-white pictures, and a 4x lens for the Ektachrome color shots. The editor's boat was piloted by Don LaFantasie of Searcy, brother-in-law of Hope Basketball Coach Billy Wayne Mitchell. The boats were running at 20 miles an hour, with the cameras shooting at 1/1,250th of a second.

VALDENE TONNEMAKER AND DONALD HUCKABEE, well-known Hope basketball referees, SATURDAY'S PICTURE EXPEDITION COMPENSATED the editor for a disastrous experience in mid-week. He was on the Narrows Tuesday and Wednesday fishing with the newspaper auditor, Lewis Cooper and his son Jim of Little Rock. Cooper preferred using an old fishing boat instead of the cruiser, and the editor agreed against his better judgment, the outfit not having been in the water in nearly a year. They took along the main engine, 25 hp, and a 7 1/2 hp "just in case." Neither engine had ever failed in 10 years — but last Wednesday both of them quit.

THE PARTY STOPPED THE BIG ENGINE IN SIGHT OF the New Hope bridge, at the end of the lake 13 miles from the dam, fished — and never were able to restart the engine. They switched to the 7 1/2, and it took them back to the Self Creek dock for refreshments. Then it wouldn't start, with the temperature 99 degrees and rain beating on the dock roof. A Texan towed the party back to the launching ramp at the dam.

POST MORTEM: YOU GUESSED IT — BACK IN HOPE both engines kicked off instantly. Vapor-lock, flooding, or what have you. Most outboarders know how to handle flooding, including yours truly — but this was 99-degree weather, with 100% humidity. Here's a tip we picked up after the disaster: Take the spark-plugs out and dip them in the water. Having already changed to new plugs we couldn't fancy that. But the water cure is supposed to get rid of raw gas, which on a humid day keeps the plugs wet and prevents firing.

Highest Amount of Radioactivity

TOKYO (AP)—The Central Meteorological Agency said today it has detected this year's highest amount of radioactivity believed scattered by a Russian nuclear blast early this month.

It said 7 micro-micro-curies of radioactivity per one cubic meter of dust were measured in Osaka, central western Japan, last Friday.

This compared to the previous high of 24 micro-micro-curies recorded in Fukuoka, northern Kyushu Island, last Jan. 8. But it was far less than the 278 micro-micro-curies detected in Osaka last Nov. 8 shortly after Russia exploded a 50-megaton nuclear bomb.

Will Keep Closer Eye on That Lion

BINGHAMTON, N.Y. (AP)—From now on, the attendants at Ross Park Zoo will be keeping a closer eye on Timba the lion.

Daniel Berina apparently failed to lock a door when he moved Timba, a 10-year-old male, to another cage while cleaning up.

Berina told police Timba followed him through the office in the animal building, in which the cage is located. Berina reached the outside door ahead of the lion and slammed it, shutting Timba inside.

Timba was lured back to his cage by the sight of Park Commissioner Michael Bednar waving a chunk of meat through the bars.

Suggests Russia Ahead of U. S.

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—A rocket manufacturing firm executive has suggested that Russia's latest successful manned orbital flights may mean the Soviet Union is ahead of the United States in a vital space field.

Robert B. Young, vice president and manager of the liquid rocket plant at Aerojet-General Corp., says they may have developed a cyclical life support system.

Young said the U.S. has been working on a system to produce a continuous supply of oxygen, food and water, needed to sustain life on long flights to the moon and beyond.

Beach Open But Watch for Sharks

MANASQUAN, N.J. (AP)—Restricted ocean bathing under the watchful eyes of a shark patrol was ordered today in the area where a New York man was attacked and bitten by what was described as a large fish.

The shark scare was touched off Sunday when Michael Roman, 24, was bitten on the hand, arm, and thigh in waist-deep water about 50 feet from the shore at Manasquan Beach. He was reported in satisfactory condition at a hospital.

Senators Get Double Win; Angels Climb

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Can a senator overrule a general?

Harry Bright has taken the first step toward tackling the ticklish problem.

Responding to a pep talk precipitated by the general's displeasure with his forces, Bright unleashed a home run salvo Monday night that carried Washington's last-place Senators in the American League to a double-header sweep over Cleveland, 11-2 and 3-2.

It started Sunday when General Elwood (Pete) Quesada, president of the Senators, indicated the ax was being sharpened for General Manager Ed Doherty and Manager Mickey Vernon.

When Doherty arrived in Cleveland Monday night, he was confronted with a rather miffed bunch of grumbling Senators. He decided on the pep talk method to close ranks.

"Just because you don't like what's happened is no reason to quit trying," he told the players.

The Senators didn't. They pounded out 16 hits in the first game triumph, including a three-run homer by Bright, then won the nightcap when Bright tagged another three-run shot in the ninth inning.

The second-place Los Angeles Angels closed within 4 1/2 games of league-leading New York by beating Boston 5-1 behind Ted Bowsfield's five-hit pitching while third-place Minnesota knocked off the Yankees 6-4 on Harmon Killebrew's three-run double in the eighth inning.

Those were the only games scheduled in the AL in the lone National League game, Cincinnati stretched its winning streak to nine games with a 10-2 triumph over Milwaukee.

Bowsfield (8-5), going the distance for the first time this season, had the Red Sox blanked on three hits until the ninth when Ed Bressoud tripled and Frank Malzone singled. The loser was Gene Conley (10-11).

Harmon Killebrew was the big gun for the Twins, going 4-for-5 against the Yankees and smacking a sizzling liner with the bases loaded and two out in the eighth inning that eluded Tony Kubek and accounted for the winning runs. Killebrew drove in five runs, moving into the league RBI lead with 85. Ray Moore (8-3) won it in relief with Bud Daley (5-3) taking the loss.

35-Hr. Week Discussed by Unions

CHICAGO (AP)—Organized labor has revealed its primary weapon in the battle for full employment will be a national campaign for a 35-hour work week.

AFL-CIO President George Meany announced Monday a drive to require double-time pay for hours worked in excess of 35 a week. He termed the shorter work week "a national necessity."

The federation represents more than 14 million of the 5 million national work force.

The federation's Executive Council formulated a two-prong attack on the unemployment problem at the opening of its five-day summer session.

It established a committee to draft new legislation which will be presented to Congress next year. It set up a task force within the federation to aid affiliated unions in bargaining for the 35-hour work week without loss in pay.

Meany told a news conference the proposed double-time pay for keeping a man on the job beyond 35 hours is calculated to make it economically necessary for employers to enlist additional manpower.

"All other attempts to deal effectively with unemployment have failed," he said. "We feel a shorter week will take up considerable slack in the unemployment picture. If we had it now, there wouldn't be very many unemployed."

Meany said the change would be much less inflationary than many persons think.

"We've had this bugaboo of inflation with us for a long time now," he said. "There are problems, but the country's biggest problem is to get people back to work, and that's what we're dealing with."

President Kennedy's administration has consistently opposed shortening the work week on the grounds the nation cannot stand a cutback in effort or a sharp boost in labor costs in its space age competition with the Communist world.

Meany said Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg will meet with the Executive Council Wednesday to discuss the 35-hour work week demand.

Reds Written Off But Won't Stay Down

By JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Cincinnati Reds have been written off more times than the First World War debt.

But they won't go away. It was standard practice all last year, and the first thing you knew they were in the World Series—about which the less said the better.

They weren't picked to repeat. Slugging third baseman Gene Freese broke his ankle in spring training.

They were written off after a sluggish start—and again when they blew three straight to the San Francisco Giants in June—and again when they dropped three in a row to the New York Mets, on Aug. 4-5.

So they won their ninth straight Monday night, 10-2, over the Milwaukee Braves, and here they are again, in third place, 6 1/2 games back of the National League—leading Los Angeles Dodgers.

The Dodgers were idle Monday night, as were the Giants, who are 2 1/2 games off the pace, and the rest of the league.

In American League action, the Minnesota Twins beat the league leading New York Yankees 6-4. The Los Angeles Angels pushed to within 4 1/2 games of the Yankees by beating the Boston Red Sox 5-1. Washington beat the Cleveland Indians twice, 11-2 and 3-2. The White Sox, Detroit, Baltimore and Kansas City were not scheduled.

The Reds used the old formula, tight pitching by one of their young flamethrowers, and the big bat of Frank Robinson, to chop down the Braves, and run their record over their last 28 games to 23-5.

Jim O'Toole, 25-year-old left-hander who won 19 games last season, ran his record to 13-12 as he threw six perfect innings before Roy McMillan reached base on an error leading off the seventh. Lou Johnson and Eddie Mathews then singled and McMillan scored on Hank Aaron's hit.

Robinson, who began defense of his Most Valuable Player award even more feebly than his team did the league crown—he was hitting .246 after six weeks crashed his second grand slam home run of the year in had five RBI's in all.

3 Magnolia Men Die in Crash

STEPHENS, Ark. (AP)—Three Magnolia men died today in the fiery crash of their automobile three miles north of Stephens on U. S. Highway 79.

Dead are Tony D. Franks, 21, Rodney G. Owen and Clarence E. Whitely, who were in their early 20s.

State Police said Franks was driver of the car, which failed to straighten out after negotiating a curve in the highway. The car left the highway, State Police said, skidded 500 feet, hit a pine tree, turned over two times and caught fire.

AF Confident in Missile Test

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The Air Force expressed confidence that the successful 5,000-mile flight of an Atlas F missile has solved a problem which had plagued the big rocket on earlier test flights.

A military crew launched the missile Monday and the Air Force announced it flew flawlessly on the 30-minute journey to the South Atlantic Ocean.

The last three Atlas F flights here failed.

TOKYO — Hiroyuki Eibihara, 112, Japan, knocked out Little Rufe, 112, Philippines, 3.
